4. Public Comments

Public Comments opened at 7: 05 p.m.

Christopher Stieg, 55 Beech St., inquired about the different amounts for the last year and this year tax millage. The Council discussed the decreasing millage rate for this year.

Mr. Stieg inquired if the property tax notice was posted to the public six days before the meeting. He was concerning of having all legal.

The time frame stablished by the law before approving a property taxes millage rate was discussed.

Craig Moore, President of Sand Lake Chamber of Commerce (SLCC), stated that the SLCC should not pay for event licenses fee, since it is a nonprofit organization.

President Doerr informed Craig Moore that this issue cannot be discussed in this meeting, since it is a special meeting.

John Bitely, Sable Developing Inc., commented through Zoom regarding the Genevieve's Plat.

President Doerr suggested to him that they should bring it to the next regular Council meeting.

Bitely requested a call from President Doerr. She will call or email him.

Public comments were closed at 7:20 p.m.

A resident attending the meeting through Zoom, wanted to participate in the public comments after it was closed. It was denied by the Council.

5. Resolution 2021-04: Village Property Tax Rates For 2021

President Doerr read aloud to the public the mills from the Resolution.

Motion made by Doerr to accept Resolution 2021-04 and seconded by McNees.
